Dismounted Liberty

By Chris Gregory

Semper Pi Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .During the past decade there s been a great resurgence of interest in World War II. This interest has, no doubt, been stimulated by one realization: the last surviving members of that generation are dwindling in number. Additionally, Tom Brokaw s The Greatest Generation has spurred an interest in those octogenarians and nonagenarians, their economic struggle, and. their war. A number of inspiring and informative books have recently treated the subject of World War II. Other than Brokaw s, some of the widely popular include: Unbroken, Tears in the Darkness, With the Old Breed, A Higher Call, The Monuments Men, and Devil at My Heels. In the spirit of those novels, Dismounted Liberty takes an in-depth look into the life of one survivor of the Battle of Bataan and the Bataan Death March. Dismounted Liberty explores his horrendous experience as a prisoner of the Imperial Japanese Army. It examines the early life-events and tragedies that forged his character from early childhood through young adulthood. When Charlie was nine-years-of-age, his hard-working father died of pneumonia and his...
