Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .annual report of this department a copy of which I am sending you under separate cover. This decision has also been affirmed by the present attorneygeneral s office during the last year. This question was very clearly and squarely stated to the attorney-general by myself and Pres. E. R. Nichols in August, 1906, in an agreed statement of facts which you will find in the above report as quoted. Now, I feel impelled to stand for the enforcement of the law as outlined in the attorney-generalOs decision of August 16, 1906, covering that class of laborers, workmen and mechanics employed as extra men, whether employed by the hour or day, or whether employed by the month ostensibly, where ten hours a day and twenty-six or twenty-seven working days are required to constitute a month, and where subdivisions of said month based upon the daily or hourly rate are used to compute the total monthly compensation, and where no fixed official position is contemplated by the statute and no fixed salary is provided therefor, other than the general maintenance fund. I shall regret exceedingly if the board of regents cannot see their way clear to take this view of the application of the law, and should it become necessary, I presume that we can permit the courts to determine the proper application finally. I note your reference to the law being a handicap to the students who may desire to work their way through school. Your attention...
