America Star Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book should make readers aware of two very important things: the wonderful aids they have available for their daily spiritual walk, and the stumbling blocks they will encounter along their pilgrimage. At times we are ready to give up on our mission in favor of the ways of the world. It is during those times that we must actualize the powerful helps that God is ready to deliver upon our request. We are never alone in our walk of faith. However, we must acquaint ourselves with the Word of God, and then ask for His help in each circumstance. Too many church members are Biblically illiterate. The loss of the power of the Holy Spirit in today s churches is a direct result of ignorance of God s Word. Add to this the many misinterpretations of Scripture, and it is easy to see how Satan can get in, grab hold, and hold on to the reins of so many churches. Those who apply the principles of this book will see things from a new perspective. It will seem that all things have become new! John H. Boyd was born in Dallas, Texas in January of 1948. After John s father s retirement from the military, the Boyds settled in Marietta, Georgia in 1957, where John and his two brothers and sister grew up. John was a typical lad who loved music. In 1975, after High School, two years of junior college, and four years in the Air Force, John felt called to full time Gospel ministry in the field of music. After graduating college and seminary, John began serving in the local church ministry full-time....
