Excerpt: . holy example of pious parents; the instructions of Sunday School teachers;--these are gone. Some of you can look back on thirty, forty, fifty years of lost opportunities. What a dismal sight! A desolate swamp, instead of a blooming garden of the Lord! There was not an hour in all those years when you might not have returned to God, and obtained His forgiveness, and secured your soul s salvation; and yet all this remains neglected to the present day. This neglect of opportunity is Satan s most successful device to ruin men. He is willing that you should believe all that God teaches in the Bible, if you will but neglect attending to it. Suffer not yourselves, I pray you, to be deluded any longer by this master-stroke of the devil s policy. You are now in the midst of present opportunities. But...
