Not illustrated. 1840 Excerpt: .Printing-Office during the last year, with the exception of a short period, was seven. About the same number have been in the book-binery. It should be mentioned, however, that three of the printers are at the same time pupils of the High school, so that their services are available only to a limited extent. A fourth has been employed several months in the year as a Panjabi Munshi to Mr. Newton. All the men in the office are still comparatively unskilful in their business. One is now in a course of special training to act as foreman; after which it may be expected that business will be conducted better, and the necessity of Mr. Morris continual presence at the station be greatly diminished. The wages of the printers vary from 6 to 15 rupees a month. The amount of printing executed during the year will be...
