AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The relationships between a father, his daughter, son-in-law, and grandchildren are clearly evident in Eye-Jack and Hey-Oh. So are the relationships between two brothers, Uncle Bright and his niece, nephew-in-law and children of his niece. The relationships were tightly bound together to form a loving family. The children were loving, dedicated members of the family and were taught to cherish their elders. A visit to their home was an experience that brought much joy and a look into the past of the lifestyles of esteemed, beloved elders. Today, those children still remember the joyful visits; they remember with pride the beautiful furnishings and elegant atmosphere that was Grandpa s house.
